DFB-Pokalfinale 2017

DFB CUP FINAL TOP FACTS

- Borussia Dortmund have now won the DFB Cup on four occasions (also 1965, 1989 and 2012), drawing level with Eintracht Frankfurt in the all-time rankings in the process.
- BVB's victory was their first in the final since 2012 (5-2 vs. Bayern). They had lost each of their last three finals.
- Frankfurt have now lost three of their seven DFB Cup finals. They were previously beaten 2-0 by TSV 1860 München in 1964 and 1-0 by Bayern München in 2006.
- Borussia have now won 45 competitive games against Eintracht in the Bundesliga era (D16, L32) – more than vs. any other side in that timeframe.
- Dortmund haven't lost any of their last 12 DFB Cup fixtures that ended after 90 or 120 minutes (games settled on penalties are officially noted as draws) – a new club record.
- BVB's improved performance after the break fired them to victory. Eintracht out-shot them in the first half (5-3) but Dortmund took charge after the interval (9-3).
- Half of the efforts recorded by both sides hit the target (BVB: 6/12; SGE: 4/8).
- Matchwinner Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang took a game-high five shots. He recorded more after the break (4) than the entire Eintracht side combined (3).
- Aubameyang has scored once in each of his three competitive outings against the Eagles this term.
- Ante Rebic was involved in five of Eintracht's eight efforts – a club high. He also attempted a game-high 25 challenges.
- Slobodan Medojevic was included in Frankfurt's XI – it was his first competitive start since 12th March 2016.
